: How General Nicolae Radescu prepared a new dictatorship in Rumania--

Strong military forces had been concentrated around Bucharest, while numerous clandestine deposits of weapons have been discovered in the city.

The sensational revelations of Radio Moscow-- Radio Moscow revealed last night at the six o'clock broadcast the following: Recent developments prove the pro-fascist activity of Radescu and show that he not only proved himself unable to establish order inside Rumania, in the rear of the Red army, but even encouraged Iron Guard and pro-Fascist activities. He sabotages systematically the purge of the state apparatus of war criminals and of those responsible for the country's disaster. Thus, criminals like General Dumitrache, General Nicolasescu, and Captain Ostrovski-Crovian.

Deeds that dishonor.--

* Preparations for a new dictatorship-- This attitude of Radescu led to systematic disbandments of the army units. For this reason the front line units were not brought up to strength, especially with regard to officers needed. Following Radescu's speech of February 7, preparations began for a veritable dictatorship. Whole armament deposits were transported to Bucharest and concealed; numerous army units were hidden in the surroundings.
